

A Moment to Myself

by Phyllis V. Du'Gas

"When the light comes on"

I look around and see remnants of my life

The reality sets in

It feels like I'm on a conveyer belt going around and around

I need to break away and find myself once again

The me I'm becoming

So many questions fill my mind

The answers are difficult to reach

Something tells me they lurk in the shadows

GOD is in motion – Be still and wait on me

Pay attention and I will light the way

Slow down and listen for me

I've been trying to get through to you

It was me who allowed you to walk into that pit

I made you – I know how much you can handle

I know the plans I have for you

I'm patiently waiting for you to know them too

Stop long enough to see how far I've brought you

I protected you from those who meant you harm

I sheltered your heart
I renewed your spirit when sorrow came
I arrived at the 11th hour - time and time again

It doesn't need to be this hard
Have you forgotten who I am
You were relying on your power to fight the battles
You know you can't win

My way is so much easier
Let go and live within my power
